Jedha

Spotify

1st block: data governance & strategy

AI Architect

Jérémy MARIAGE & Albert ROMANO

1- Context

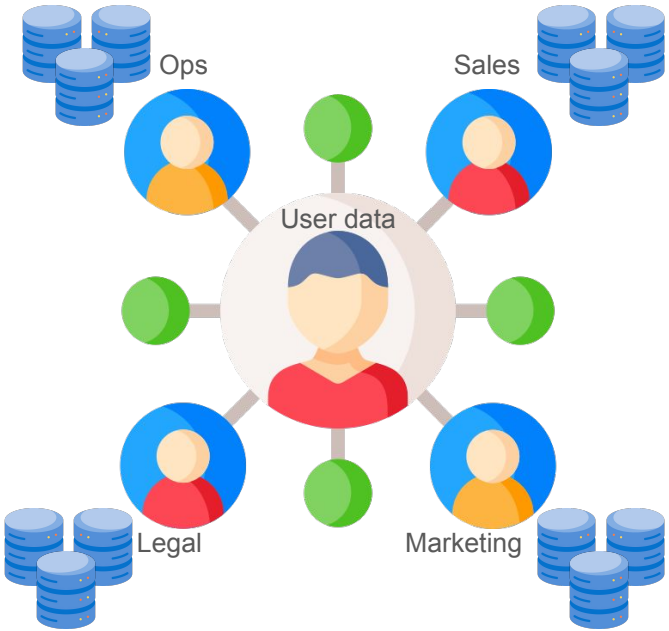
Founded in 2006, Sweden

Music streaming service

Over 700 millions of users

2024 revenue ~15.6 billion €

Business case: data governance and regulations compliance



2- Core challenges

- Unify data management
  - Break down silos
- Implement a data governance policy
  - Standardize practices
- Ensure regulations compliance
  - Make services aware of its importance
- Improve data quality
  - Cooperate efficiently
- Secure data
  - Consider the least privilege principle

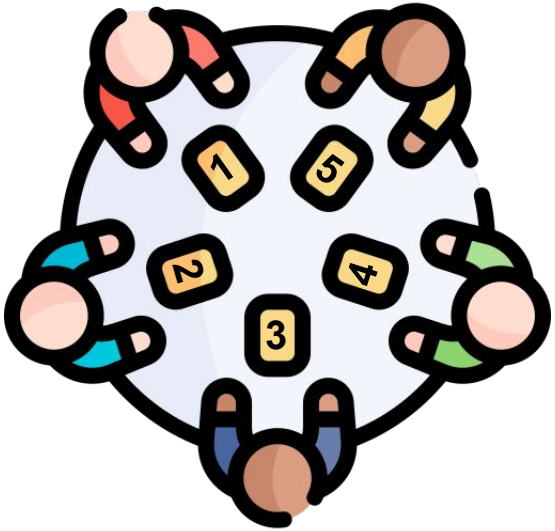
3.1- Company bylaw

Accountability

Define and appoint key roles

Data security

Encryption, timely alert, disaster recovery plan



Continuous improvement

Training, audits

Data quality

Standardization, relevance and completeness

Minimization

Optimization, security and operational convenience

3.2- Public policy

Regulations compliance

GDPR, AI Act, CCPA…

Transparency

Documentation, reporting

User rights

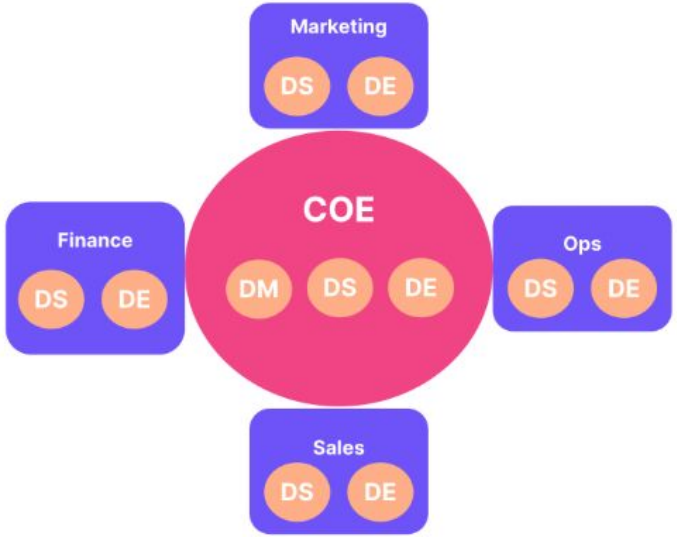
Consent, modification, opt-out

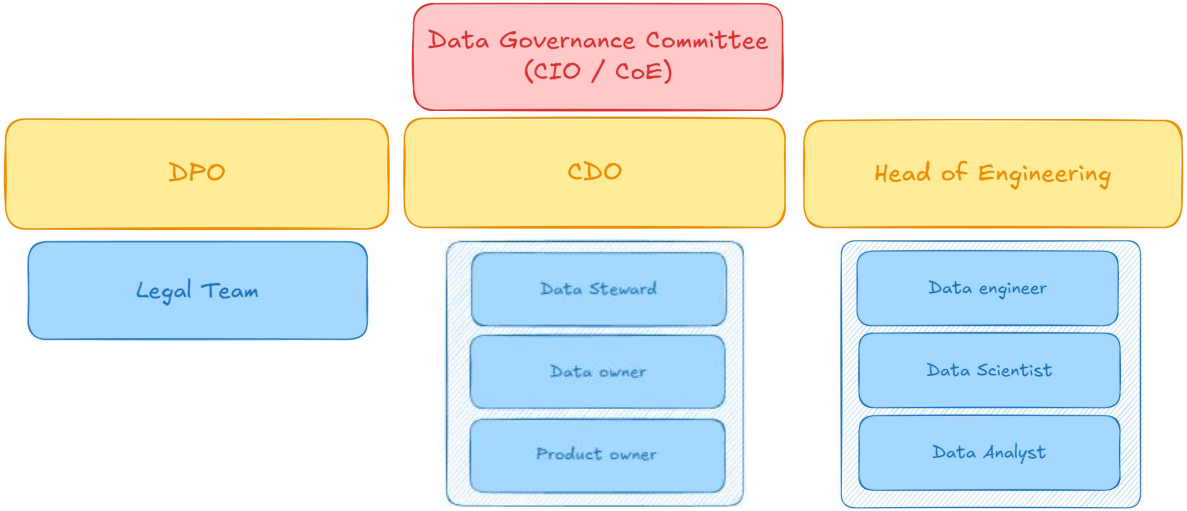
Ethics

Trustworthy practices

4- Organizational chart

Center of Excellence





5- Pilot implementation plan

User data processing &
regulations compliance

Maturity &
Consolidation

Recruitment & appointments
DPO, CDO, HoE
Data stewards

CoE implementation
Data Governance
Committee

6- Pilot methods

Chronology

Bi-annual meeting on progress

KPIs

Tool metrics (OneTrust, DataGuard…)
Scores (compliance, quality…)

Deliverables

Compliance assessment, data quality report
Technical integration plan, feedback report
Training guide, risk assessment report

7- Risk management & adaptation

Data drift

Monitoring tool:
Informatica Data Quality

Non-compliance

DPO vigilance
Raise awareness & training

Resistance to change

Workshops & newsletter
Gather feedback

Technical integration failure

Tool: Apache Atlas
Keep IT department involved

8- Next steps

Adjustments

Monitoring of the regulations
Strategic alignment

Scaling

Diffusion to interrelated services
Spread of the company’s culture

Continuous improvement

Regular audits
Training updates & refresh

Jedha

Thank you for your attention!

Any questions?